

HUMAN RESOURCES TRAINING AND DEVELOPMENT (M.A.)

The M.A. in Human Resources Training and Development has been replaced by the M.A. in Law Enforcement Executive Leadership program.

This M.A. program focuses on the practical application of leadership and management theories, design and implementation of performance improvement strategies in organizations, with a strong emphasis on training and development. Taught by experienced and knowledgeable professors, the curriculum enables students to acquire the necessary skills and tools to analyze complex public sector challenges and manage the day-to-day operations of public agencies.

Admissions Requirements

Admission will be open to holders of baccalaureate degrees from accredited colleges or universities. Faculty will evaluate each applicant based on the following criteria and materials:

- Statement of purpose;
- Official undergraduate and graduate transcripts;
- Three letters of recommendation from academic and/or professional references;
- Current résumé; and
- Personal interview.

Applications are reviewed on a rolling basis.

Degree Requirements

Students must complete a minimum of 36 credit hours, as listed below. Up to 6 credits not applied to previous degrees may be transferred.
