Program Code: EC_EDPK_EDD

The Ed.D. in PreK-12 Education Leadership, Management and Policy is designed for aspiring and working professionals with leadership experience, prepares scholarly practitioners to improve education for diverse students and stakeholders. The program develops equity- and justice-based leaders to plan and enact meaningful change across settings.

Faculty emphasize the intersections of theory, policy, and practice and encourage students to apply learning across contexts to solve complex educational issues. Seton Hall, as a Catholic, research-focused institution, has a long standing reputation for creating transformative leaders. Graduates have pursued careers as school, district, community, and state leaders.

Admissions Requirements

To be considered for admission, applicants are required to submit the following materials:

- Online application and application fee
- Official transcript(s) from all institutions attended, including an earned Master's-level degree (cumulative GPA of at least 2.50 for last degree)
- Letters of recommendation (3) from academic and/or professional references
