Program Code: EC_CESC_NM

The Certificate of Eligibility with Advanced Standing - Secondary Teaching (CEAS - Secondary) is an intensive blended option designed for non-matriculated candidates seeking Secondary-level teacher certification.

The CEAS - Secondary non-matriculated curriculum is approximately a year in length and combines online course learning, field experience and a culminating Clinical Practice experience. Candidates receive individual advisement throughout their studies and upon completion will be qualified for nomination to the NJ Department of Education as a secondary teacher.

Admissions Requirements

To be considered for admission, applicants are required to submit the following materials:

- Online application and application fee
- Official transcript(s) from all institutions attended, reflective of at least 15-30 credits in a specialized field
- Official score report indicating passing score on the Praxis II exam
- Resume/Curriculum vitae
- Interview (upon request)

Application Deadline

The CEAS - Secondary reviews applications on a rolling basis and typically accepts applicants for students to begin their studies in the Summer semester (typically beginning in mid-May).
