

COST - SPEECH AND THEATRE (COST)

COST 7111 Communication Consulting (3 Credits)

This course explores the theory and practice of communication consulting. An emphasis is placed on identifying professional challenges through projects and discussions as well as the role and function of a consultant to private and public businesses and organizations. The course provides a practical view of the multiple components of this profession and offers strategies for success.