

HIST - HISTORY (HIST)

HIST 6120 Intro to Digital Humanities (3 Credits)

HIST 6121 DH for Cultural Heritage (3 Credits)

HIST 6165 History of the Cold War (3 Credits)

HIST 6190 Historians Craft (3 Credits)

An introduction to the craft of historical thinking, research, and writing. The course is designed as an introduction to the field of historiography, the examination and evaluation of historians' different interpretations of a particular historical event, phenomenon, or time period.

HIST 6211 World War I (3 Credits)

Surveys the diplomatic, military and geopolitical aspects of the First World War from its preliminaries to its conclusion, giving special consideration to its causes and consequences.

HIST 6212 World War II (3 Credits)

Surveys the diplomatic, military and geopolitical aspects of the Second World War from its preliminaries to its conclusion, giving special consideration to causes and consequences.

HIST 6234 Medieval Italy (3 Credits)

Treats the history of Italy from the early Middle Ages to the Council of Trent. Emphasis is placed on the dramatic changes in peoples, state institutions, religion, the economy and society that occurred during these centuries.

HIST 6235 Modern Italy (3 Credits)

Review of Modern Italian history from the late Renaissance to the present. Emphasis is placed on the dramatic changes in people, state institutions, religion, the economy and society that occurred during these centuries.

HIST 6240 Renaissance and Reformation (3 Credits)

Beginning of modern Europe as the renewal of trade is followed by rediscovery of the ancient world, discovery of the New World, changes in art, literature and thought and the division of Christianity by the Protestant movement.

HIST 6242 French Revolution (3 Credits)

Intellectual ferment of the enlightenment, through the upheaval of the revolution and its despotic aftermath.

HIST 6243 Britain I (3 Credits)

Restoration of Charles II in 1660 to the Reform Bill in 1832.

HIST 6246 Kievan Rus and Muscovy (3 Credits)

From the origins of the Russian nation to Peter the Great.

HIST 6253 Britain II (3 Credits)

The Reform Bill of 1832 to the present.

HIST 6254 Early Modern Ireland (3 Credits)

Political, economic, and social history of Ireland from the Treaty of Limerick in 1691 to the Great Famine of the 1840s.

HIST 6264 Modern Ireland (3 Credits)

Examination of the forces of Ireland's recent past that account for her present condition (Formerly HIST 2264).

HIST 6265 Germany 1848 to Present (3 Credits)

Comprehensive survey of Germany beginning with its political and economic modernization, through the world wars of the 20th century to the present.

HIST 6266 20th Century Russia (3 Credits)

This course will explore one of the greatest social experiments in human history - the Soviet Union. It will examine the birth of the Soviet system, the upheavals of the Russian Revolution and Civil War, the early Soviet period, Stalin, the impact of WWII, and the building and then disintegration at the end of the century.

HIST 6288 Film & History in Europe (3 Credits)

HIST 6319 New Jersey History (3 Credits)

The state of New Jersey from colonial days to the present. Emphasis on factors having heaviest impact on the state today.

HIST 6321 Environmental History of U.S. (3 Credits)

HIST 6340 Native Amer Hist to Removal (3 Credits)

HIST 6341 Colonial America (3 Credits)

HIST 6353 Civil War and Reconstruction (3 Credits)

Slavery and sectionalism; causes and character of the Civil War; Reconstruction in its varied aspects.

HIST 6354 Frontier America (3 Credits)

The westward movement in American life.

HIST 6363 America Since 1945 (3 Credits)

Intellectual and social developments, the Cold War, the Black Revolution, and Vietnam.

HIST 6366 Af Americ Lives: James Baldwin (3 Credits)

HIST 6371 Diplomatic History II (3 Credits)

The foreign relations of the United States during a century of conflict and change. This course deals with American diplomacy at the end of World War I, isolation, the Good Neighbor policy, the challenges to the dictators, the response to World War II, atomic diplomacy, the Cold War, detente, American global hegemony and the challenges to it.

HIST 6372 Economic History of US (3 Credits)

Economic development of the United States from colonial origins to contemporary position as a world power.

HIST 6374 Immigration-Race-Citizen in US (3 Credits)

Ethnic minorities in the development of American life.

HIST 6375 African-American History (3 Credits)

The interaction between black and white society in the United States and the nature of black society and culture.

HIST 6386 American Military History (3 Credits)

HIST 6387 Catholic Church in the US (3 Credits)

Role of Catholics and the Church in the United States from colonial beginnings to the recent past, focusing on internal developments and on relations with the wider society.

HIST 6622 Hist and Culture of Japan II (3 Credits)

This course covers the history and culture of Japan from the Edo Period through WWII. It emphasizes the importance of modernization and cultural/political issues on Japanese traditions.

HIST 6624 Age of Samurai (3 Credits)

HIST 6625 Japan and Pacific Empire (3 Credits)

HIST 6627 Modern Monsters Japanese Hist (3 Credits)

HIST 6629 History Republican China (3 Credits)

History and political developments in China from the Republican Revolution of 1911 to 1949.

HIST 6630 History-Contemporary China (3 Credits)

The course traces the history of Communist China from the founding of the Chinese Communist Party to the present day.

HIST 6712 Special Topics in History (3 Credits)

HIST 7211 PDR-European History (3 Credits)

Program in Directed Readings. This course will introduce students to the major historiographical issues that have arisen in the secondary literature in European History.

HIST 7351 PDR-American History (3 Credits)

Program in Directed Readings. This course will introduce students to the major historiographical issues that have arisen in the secondary literature in an aspect of American history.

HIST 7353 PDR in American History (3 Credits)

HIST 7354 PDR in American History (3 Credits)

HIST 7355 PDR in American History (3 Credits)

HIST 7490 PDR-Global History (3 Credits)

Program in Directed Readings. This course will introduce students to the major historiographical issues that have arisen in the secondary literature in an aspect of Global history.

HIST 7491 PDR - Global History (3 Credits)

HIST 9110 Examinations Readings (3 Credits)

Independent study designed to help student, through readings, prepare for the MA examination. For students taking the non-thesis option.

HIST 9111 Thesis (3 Credits)

Independent study during which the student will write the MA thesis.

HIST 9112 Thesis II (3 Credits)

Independent study during which the student will write the MA thesis.