<https://www.shu.edu/academics/minor-in-medieval-renaissance-studies.cfm>

Director: Angela Weisl, Ph.D. (English); Laura Wangerin, Ph.D. (History)

Faculty: Bénétéau; Connell; Giblin-Gedacht; Murzaku; Nichols; Schultz; Sherman; Wangerin (Co-Director); Weisl (Co-Director)

The Medieval and Renaissance Studies Minor is for students interested in focusing on these particular historical periods and how they manifest in a variety of disciplines. Interested students must take 6 courses (18 credits) from the following list. Courses must come from at least 3 disciplines; students may focus specifically on the Medieval or Renaissance period, or they can combine courses from both periods. Students' coursework may focus on Western Europe or take a broader view of Medieval and Renaissance Geography to include the Middle East, the Far East, and even the Americas. Courses may "double count" with a student's major or additional minor. Other special topics courses may be approved for the minor by the coordinators.
