

COMMUNICATION MAJOR (B.A.)

Academic Advisers: Kimble; Ohrenberger-Hopkins; Radwan; Plummer; Zizik

The Communication major is a comprehensive and flexible program of study that focuses on immediate interaction in face to face real-time contexts. This basis provides a foundation for examining all forms of human communication.

A list of required courses for the Communications major can be found below. In consultation with a faculty adviser, students must also select the "approved elective" courses from associated communication disciplines.
