The Division of Continuing Education and Professional Studies serves the personal and professional needs of a diverse community of learners through credit and non-credit courses, professional development programs, workshops, seminars, symposia, lecture series, and professional certification.

Uniquely positioned to respond to the needs of the adult learner, the Division of Continuing Education and Professional Studies provides the leadership in coordinating campus-wide academic partnerships to carry out the University's mission of educational outreach by offering a wide range of educational options through a full range of delivery methods and formats.

The Division of Continuing Education and Professional Studies also collaborates with academic departments to offer credit courses during summer and weekend semesters and works with faculty and administrative units to develop short-term travel-study programs supporting the development of traditional and non-traditional student populations.

Committed to maximizing the capacity to learn, whether it is on-campus, off-campus, or "anytime-anyplace," the Division of Continuing Education and Professional Studies facilitates access to the outstanding academic and enrichment programs available through Seton Hall University.

The Division of Continuing Education and Professional Studies works with the colleges and schools to offer online degree and certificate programs as well as other online learning offerings that are designed for professionals who have the ability, desire and dedication to accept the rigors of a fast-paced, challenging curriculum.

Utilizing a web-based online delivery system, these programs provide a rich educational experience. Completing learning offerings online, students are able to earn the credential while continuing to meet professional and personal commitments.

The Division of Continuing Education and Professional Studies serves the educational aspirations and professional needs of students from the region and across the nation. CEPS works with outside organizations to customize learning opportunities for employees whether on campus, on online or on-site. Committed to utilizing the technological advantages that web-based delivery affords and the Seton Hall University high level of academic quality that students deserve, students can pursue their education "anytime-anyplace."
