

BUSINESS CERTIFICATE

(For Non-Business Majors)

The Certificate Program in Business is designed for non-business majors at Seton Hall University and other regionally accredited colleges.

Students are exposed to the language of business. Major concepts in accounting, marketing, finance and management provide a head start in the business world. These courses provide solid preparation for entering the job market and starting a career after graduation.

Qualifications

To qualify for the Certificate Program in Business, applicants must:

- major in an area other than business at a college or university with regional accreditation;
- have completed at least 60 credit hours of college-level courses.

Application

To apply for the program, applicants should contact the Stillman School's Student Information Office, (973) 761-9222 or stillmaninfo@shu.edu.

Certification of Credits

Students successfully completing the 12-credit program will receive a Certificate in Business from the Stillman School of Business at Seton Hall University. In addition, Seton Hall will verify completion of the overall program to potential employers or other parties, if requested by the student.

Requirements

To qualify for the Certificate in Business, students must complete the following:

Code	Title	Hours
BACC 2103	Financial Accounting *	3
BMGT 2501	Principles of Management 	3
BMKT 2601	Principles of Marketing 	3
ECON 1411	Introduction to Economics (or equivalent)	3
Total Hours		12

* Prerequisite 30 credits

** Prerequisites 45 credits and ECON 1411 Introduction to Economics or equivalent

Note: Prerequisites are strictly enforced.

Students must earn a GPA of at least 2.5 for the four courses and earn no more than one grade of "D" or "D+" in the above courses to be eligible for the Certificate in Business.

Some institutions require the last 30 credit hours to be taken in residence. Other colleges may have specific requirements for advance permission before courses may be taken at another college. Applicants should investigate the regulations of the home institution prior to applying for the certificate program.
