

DIPLOMACY AND INTERNATIONAL RELATIONS MAJOR (B.A.B.A)

The Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration program enables Seton Hall students to obtain competencies of the business core and a breadth of knowledge in liberal arts and other fields. The B.A. in Business Administration (B.A.B.A.) requires a minimum of 120 credits, including 82 core credits and 38 credits of selected major and elective coursework. Electives may be taken at any undergraduate college or school of Seton Hall, but students may not exceed the maximum number of business credits noted within each major. Students may choose a major in arts and sciences, international studies, diplomacy and international relations or general studies.

Students who declare a major in diplomacy and international relations will complete the requirements of the minor in diplomacy and international relations offered by the School of Diplomacy and International Relations. Remaining elective credits must be selected from courses offered by the College of Arts and Sciences. No additional business elective courses may be taken.
