GENERAL STUDIES MAJOR (B.A.B.A.)

The Bachelor of Arts in Business Administration program enables Seton Hall students to obtain competencies of the business core and a breadth of knowledge in liberal arts and other fields. The B.A. in Business Administration (B.A.B.A.) requires a minimum of 120 credits, including 82 core credits and 38 credits of selected major and elective coursework. Electives may be taken at any undergraduate college or school of Seton Hall, but students may not exceed the maximum number of business credits noted within each major. Students may choose a major in arts and sciences, international studies, diplomacy and international relations or general studies.

In the General Studies major, students may accumulate their elective credits from any college or school of Seton Hall. Business electives may not exceed 9 credits. Students in the B.A.B.A. program also are allowed (and encouraged) to take a maximum of 9 credits through the internships program. They must meet the criteria for participation in this program (see "Experiential Education-Internships" in this catalogue).
